D Elite Soft is an initiative to provide support and guidelines to startups. There are two types of startups.

1. Startup with own products :- This kind of startups have their own products (services and/or manufactured items). Example of service startup is Justdial.com and example of product startup is flipcart.com. If you are a startup of this kind than D Elite Soft can help you to boost your business immediately with "Startup Booster" package. D Elite Soft helps you to increase your online presence and provide focused consumers of your services/products.

2. Startups looking for opportunities :- This kind of startups don't have their own services/products, but they have infrastructure, computers, manpower and investment. These startups mainly look for data entry/BPO/Call Center works. To start these kind of works and projects you must have to check basic eligibility criteria. If you are a startup of this kind than D Elite Soft help you to get direct information of genuine projects and provide support in application and bidding procedure.

Any startup want to boost monthly income can take our franchisee and become part of world's most reliable service provider. But every startup don't have sufficient budget for franchisee, so we give opportunity to connect with us in just Rs 5750/-.
